Network mobilisation

To increase mobilisation and ensure the voice of civil society is heard, Coalition Eau forges links with networks working to increase access to water and sanitation and preserve water resources in both the global North and South.